

2017 6th Grade Coding Final

You will have the option of creating a fully functional game on scratch or doing a research project on the history of video games with in a certain decade. The research project will include a 3-page paper along with a 5-minute oral PowerPoint presentation in front of the class. The rubrics for each option is on the class website.